Sapporo AOBA Vocational College

The Department of Japanese Language will support you in realizing your dreams.

Sapporo AOBA Vocational College has been established as a training school for practitioners of acupuncture and moxibustion, and judo therapists. Students will acquire high levels of specialized knowledge and excellent techniques, and learn to be a medical professional. Our goal is to nurture practitioners of acupuncture and moxibustion, and judo therapists who can provide high quality medical care. Our mission is to provide the world with excellent human resources who can meet society's expectations. Taking advantage of this characteristic of our school, the Japanese Language Department provides students with the Japanese language skills and knowledge necessary to enter higher education institutions in the medical field. In addition, we will do our best to support international students who enter our school so that they can go on to higher education not only in the medical field but also in a wide range of other fields and achieve their dreams.

【Location】 1-24, S3 E4, Chuo-ku, Sapporo, Hokkaido, JAPAN

Sapporo is the largest city in Hokkaido, the northern part of Japan. It is the fourth largest city in Japan after Yokohama, Osaka, and Nagoya, and is home to many commercial and cultural facilities. Although Sapporo is a large city, it is also surrounded by a lot of greenery. A 10-15 minute train or subway ride will take you to the majestic nature that only Hokkaido can offer. This city is the perfect environment for studying and living in Japan.

In the Department of Japanese Language, students study to enter vocational schools, universities, and graduate schools in Japan. In order to achieve this goal, we provide education to acquire the four skills (reading, writing, listening, and speaking) in a balanced manner. In addition to preparing students for JLPT and EJU, we also incorporate project works and daily news in class activities. In this way, students will acquire comprehensive language skills so as not to have trouble communicating in classes and in student life after entering vocational school, university, or graduate school.

◆ Course Levels

*Depending on the progress of the class, a higher level class than the "Upper Intermediate" may be offered.
